HEADS UP ENGLISH's store

find solutions.
reach goals.
engage your students.

awesome resources ready for immediate download!

Become a Better Language Teacher

Join the Newsletter for Ideas, Answers, and Help!

30 Day Money Back Guarantee  Secure Checkout
BEAUTY IS IN THE EYE OF THE BEHOLDER

Discuss or debate the questions below. Remember to support your answers!

- Have you ever heard the maxim, "Beauty is in the eye of the beholder?" What might it mean? Do you agree or disagree?
- Do you think beautiful people have better lives? Why/not?
- Is there a nationality that gives birth to the most attractive people? If yes, which one?
- Do beautiful people intimidate you? Let's say you went to a party filled with models, would you feel uncomfortable? Why/not?
- Do you think that models portray an unrealistic image of beauty? Why/not?

- Which is more important, how someone looks or how someone acts? Why do you think so? Are there any cases where one is clearly more important than the other?
- Let's build on the last question. Which draws you to a person when you meet them for the first time, looks or personality? Why?
- What do you look for in a boyfriend or girlfriend? Why?
- Studies suggest that beautiful people get better salaries and more frequent promotions than the average person. Why does this happen?
- Some people say that the loneliest people are often beautiful people. What might this mean? Do you agree or disagree?
- What are some disadvantages that the beautiful people of the world encounter on a regular basis? Why do you think so?
- Why do people spend such a large amount of their discretionary income on products that promise beauty? Is it merely vanity?
- If you could change one aspect of your appearance, which feature would you change? Why would you change it?

- Is the quest for eternal beauty a pathological problem which affects everyone?
- Would you ever consider going under the knife to make yourself more attractive?
- Plastic surgery is often expensive and painful. If you could take a pill that offered similar results to a facelift or a nose job, would you take it? Why/not?

- Assume an accident has left you horribly disfigured. How would it affect your life? Might you choose to have plastic surgery? Please explain.
- What do you think of people who opt for plastic surgery? Why do you think that?
- What if you were voted the most beautiful person in the world? How would your life be different? Would your life be better or worse?
- Who are some attractive celebrities? What makes them attractive?