

find solutions.
reach goals.
engage your students.

awesome resources ready for immediate download!

Become a Better Language Teacher

 Join the Newsletter for Ideas, Answers, and Help! *****

ALLERGIES

Discuss or debate the questions below. Remember to support your answers!

- Do you have any allergies? If yes, what are you allergic to?
 - Does anyone in your family have allergies? If yes, what are they allergic to?
 - Are allergies becoming more and more common? Why do/don't you think so?
 - Can you give any advice to someone with allergies?
-
- What is an allergy? If you don't know, check your dictionary.
 - What is a symptom? If you don't know, check your dictionary.
 - What are some common allergies? Why do you think so many people are allergic to these things? Please explain.
 - What is the most common allergy in your country? Why do you think so many have this allergy? Please explain.
 - What is a remedy? If you don't know, check your dictionary.
 - How would your life be different if you were allergic to sunlight? Please explain.
 - How would your life be different if you were allergic to water? Please explain.
 - How is an allergy different from a cold? Please explain.
-
- Do you know anyone that has been hospitalized because of allergies?
 - Would you get rid of a pet if you developed an allergy to it? Why/not?
 - Would you get rid of a pet if your spouse or child developed an allergy to it? Why/not?
 - Is there anything that you avoid because of allergies? If yes, please explain.
-
- What is hay fever? If you don't know, check your dictionary.
 - What is an allergen? If you don't know, check your dictionary.
 - Which is worse, an allergy to animals, nuts, or pollen? Why do you think so?
 - Which is worse, an allergy to bee stings, dust, or metal? Why do you think so?

