

Skill Builders: Grammar – Q&A Drills (Third Conditional)
Upper-Intermediate

Q&A DRILLS (A)

Step One: Read through the questions and check that you understand each one.

Step Two: Pair up with another student. Student A will read the questions and student B will answer each one. Be sure to use today's Grammar and try to add more information if possible.

Step Three: Switch roles and repeat.

Step Four: If you have time, select one answer that you want your partner to explain in more detail. Ask additional questions, and then switch.

A: How would your life have been different if you had been born a boy/girl?

B: If I had been born a boy/girl...

A: How would your life have been different if you had been born in the US?

B:

A: How would your life have been different if your family had won the lottery?

B:

A: How would your life have been different if you had ten brothers and sisters?

B:

A: How would your life have been different if you had never decided to learn English?

B:

Q&A DRILLS (B)

Step One: Read through the questions and check that you understand each one.

Step Two: Pair up with another student. Student A will read the questions and student B will answer each one. Be sure to use today's Grammar and try to add more information if possible.

Step Three: Switch roles and repeat.

Step Four: If you have time, select one answer that you want your partner to explain in more detail. Ask additional questions, and then switch.

A: How would your life have been different if you had quit school at ten?

B: If I had quit school at ten...

A: How would your life have been different if you had never met your best friend?

B:

A: How would your life have been different if you had become famous as a child?

B:

A: How would your life have been different if you had been born in England?

B:

A: How would your life have been different if you had gotten married at sixteen?

B:

