

LET'S GO SHOPPING

Discuss or debate the questions below. Remember to support your answers!

- Do you like shopping? Why/not?
 - Do you usually buy expensive products or are you a bargain hunter? Please explain.
 - If you didn't need to worry about money, would you go shopping every day?
 - Did you go shopping last week? If yes, what did you buy? If no, why didn't you go shopping?
 - Have you ever bought something on the Internet? If yes, what did you buy?
-
- How often do you go shopping? Do you think this is too much or too little?
 - What was the last thing that you bought?
 - What was the most expensive thing that you have ever bought? How did you feel after you bought it? Please explain.
 - What is a spur-of-the-moment purchase? Do you often make spur-of-the-moment purchases?
 - What is a shopaholic? Are you a shopaholic?
 - What is a cheapskate? Are you a cheapskate?
 - What kind of stores do you prefer, big department stores or small shops? Why?
 - If money weren't important, what would you really want to buy? Why would you want to buy it? Please explain.
-
- Do you have any plans to go shopping this weekend? If yes, what do you want to buy? If no, then why aren't you going shopping?
 - Have you ever participated in an auction? If yes, what did you buy? If no, would you want to?
 - Do you think women love shopping more than men? Why do you think so?
-
- If you found $100, what would you buy? How about $10,000? Why would you buy these products?
 - Why do people often buy something that they don't really need?
 - Which is better, shopping alone or shopping with friends? Why do you think so?
 - A classmate or friend plans to visit your hometown or country. What should he/she buy as a souvenir? Please explain.

