Discuss or debate the questions below. Remember to support your answers!

- Has the pace of the modern world become far too fast? Why do/don't you think so?
- Do you consider yourself overworked? Please explain.
- Do you consider yourself stressed out? Please explain.
- Would you ever consider quitting your job for six months or one year to take a vacation and relax? Why/not?
- If you didn't have to worry about money, what kind of vacation would you take?
- What's your idea of the perfect vacation? Why?
- What's your idea of the vacation from hell? Why?
- What was the best vacation you have ever taken? Why?
- What is the best meal that you have ever eaten? Why was it so good?
- What was the worst vacation you have ever taken? Why?
- Do you agree or disagree? It will simply be impossible to take vacations in fifty years because everyone will be too busy. Why do you think so?
- How has the balance between work and free time shifted in the past fifty years in your country? Please explain.
- Would you describe your life as easy, difficult, or just right? Please explain.

- Would you consider yourself a workaholic? Why/not?
- France has experimented with a four-day work week. Would this work in your country? Why/not?
- Do you think retirement is a real possibility when you turn 65 years old? Why/not?
- When you retire, will you definitely have the time to travel, relax, and do everything that you have always wanted to do? Why/not?

- How do you relax?
- How many hours do you sleep each night? Is this too much or too little? Why do you think so?
- What is the busiest country in the world? What country is likely the most relaxed? How does your country compare? Please explain.
- Do you agree or disagree? A six-day work week will be common in fifty years. Please explain.